Important

Dear friend

One important item was not discussed at the Annual General Meeting in February. I am therefore letting you know that each church member will be receiving a letter asking for agreement to the nomination of society representatives to the Church Council meeting.

A number of people have already said they would be willing to serve but if you have anyone else in mind, please check with them that they are willing to, then let me or a steward know. It is very important that the Church Council includes the views of as many of our members as possible so that the best decisions are made on your behalf, so please, when you get your letter, give this your prayerful attention and respond with your choices.

Kind regards

Pat Cook, Church Council /Circuit Meetings Secretary

All the young folk in J Club took part in Cradley Then and Now Young Persons Art Work Competition. I have been notified to day that Jessica Lavender came second in the under 10's and will shortly be receiving her prize. So well done to Jessica.
