WORK PARTY – CHURCH SPRING CLEAN

Can you spare up to three hours this coming Saturday (22nd May 2010), to help spring clean our Church. Lots of help is required. Any assistance you can give would be greatly appreciated.

PENTECOST EVENING OF PRAISE AND WORSHIP

As part of this year's Pentecost we will be having an evening of praise and worship this coming Saturday (22nd May) starting at 7.30pm with Jenny Robins, supported by our very own No Strings Attached Puppet Ministry.

Jenny as some will recall, joined us last Christmas morning and is a talented singer and evangelist. Please come along to what promises to be a very enjoyable evening. Jenny will also be leading our morning and evening worship on the Sunday (23rd May).

EVENING SERVICES

Evening services will return into the main church. To assist the preacher we are asked to sit in a block at the front of the church. Café worship will continue to be held in the Primary.

ACTION FOR CHILDREN

The Vale of Stour Methodist Circuit invite you to a CREAM TEA at Amblecote/Wordsley Methodist Church. Saturday 26th June 2pm~4.30. Tickets £2.50 available from Elaine.

BLACK COUNTRY FOOD BANK

Just a note to update everyone on progress at the Food Bank. The cold winter has put quite a strain on supplies but everyone who has had a need has been fed.

There are many stories of people being helped by the Food Bank, too many to mention in the Newsletter so I've pinned up a selection on the Notice Board for anyone to read.

Thank you for your continued support and donations.

Chris

PASTORAL MEETING

There will be pastoral meeting on the 14th June at 7.30pm

PROVIDENCE PENS

Chris Lune has a supply of our very own Providence pens for sale at £1.50 each, all proceeds go to Church funds.
